

Historical Figures

MY PROMISE, MY FAITH

We need scouts to go through and sort the female Historical Figures to make it easier to find the right Historical figures for their Law Lines. It also is a huge help, to have a biography that has the right information for fact finding about My Promise, My Faith.

First Step: Pick a Historical Figure to research. Either one on the list or your own choice!

Figure out which Girl Scout Law value lines match their accomplishments - it might be one, or it might be multiple.

Example: Those who fight for women's rights fit well with Respect Myself and Others or Make the World a Better Place depending on their focus. Athletic accomplishments work well with Courageous and Strong or Responsible for What I Do and Say as it takes a lot of work to become an athlete. Law Enforcement and Political figures could easily work with Respect Authority, but might have an influence towards a specific trait, like being known for Honest and Fair or Considerate and Caring.

Use at least two trusted sources (no Wikipedia) as biographies and information about your Historical Figure. Provide the Book and Author Title, or the full web address so we can create a MLA reference for the biography. Reminder: One biography should already be provided on the Historical Figures website.

MY PROMISE, MY FAITH

This image shows a full page of white paper with horizontal black ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page, providing a template for writing or drawing. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the page.

Historical Figures

MY PROMISE, MY FAITH

Now for your opinion. It matters! Why do you think this Historical Figure is a great example of one of the Line Laws you chose? This is your personal section to honor your Historical Figure and bring more people to understand how amazing you think they are.

Now "Sign" your work.

First Name (or Camp Name):

Girl Scout Council:

Troop Number (Or "Juliette"):

E-mail your Historical Figure to thebadgearchive@gmail.com for it to be posted online as a reference for any future scout to earn their My Promise, My Faith pin!